

Boys Capture Special Prize In Doll Show

A special award went to three boys from the Hot Dog and

Hamburger midget league ball teams for their home-made doll, which was entered in Tuesday's doll show at McMaster park.

The doll was constructed of popsicle sticks, string, glue, cotton, a shoe tap and a bottle top. Contest officials sadly reported that the doll did not survive the show.

Rev. Siefkes Preaches Farewell Sermon Sunday

Rev. U. Luther Siefkes, assistant pastor of the First Lutheran Church of Torrance, will preach his farewell sermon this Sunday at the 8 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. services. His theme will be "The Christian Challenge That Always Confronts Us."

Rev. Siefkes will leave early next week to complete his training at Wartburg Theological Seminary in Dubuque, Iowa. Following a year of study there, he will be ordained as a minister in the church. Mrs. Siefkes, who has been teaching at North Torrance Elementary School, will accompany her husband East.

Pastor Walter Behrens, who has just completed two years at the seminary, will arrive this Saturday to replace Rev. Siefkes as assistant to the church's pastor, Paul Wenske.

Rev. Behrens will reside at 2363 Maricopa Pl. His wife will begin teaching at Torrance Elementary School in September.

Pastor Wenske and his family are currently vacationing in the Midwest. They left Monday for a tour through Nebraska and Ohio, and will return here during August, Rev. Siefkes disclosed.

Gospel Meet Begins Here On August 14

Boyd Field, former preacher for the Torrance Church of Christ and for nine years preacher in Juneau, Alaska, will begin a ten-day gospel meeting with the church here Sunday, August 14.

Field and his family are returning to Alaska after spending the past year in advanced study at Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas.

When Field first arrived in Juneau there was no church of Christ there. Now there is a thriving congregation with its own building and funds enough to support a native Af-

Club Council Plans Fund Raising Drive

Members of the ways and means committee of the B'nai B'rith Men's Lodge and the B'nai B'rith Women have formed a joint co-ordinating council to plan and organize fund raising activities for both groups, according to Mrs. Richard Schroeder, press chairman for B'nai B'rith Women.

The council will participate in monthly sessions of dance instruction classes, which will culminate at the end of the year with a joint dinner-dance to be given as a fund raising affair, Mrs. Schroeder said.

Picnic Set

Sunday, August 7, is the date set by the council for the annual family picnic, to be held at Walteria Park. Games have been planned for the adults and free kiddie rides will be given to all children.

Another function planned by the group for this year will be a bazaar-smorgasbord to be held sometime in November. This will feature booths of all types of merchandise and food items. Further information about this event will be announced later, Mr. Schroeder said.

Members

Members of the joint co-ordinating council are Nat Low, chairman; Bernard Snitzer and Mrs. Nat Low, co-treasurer; Mrs. Bernard Snitzer, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brodsky, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fink, and Mrs. Nate Kamins, Mrs. Earl Erdman, Mrs. Bertram Feuer, Mrs. Ralph Klein, Mrs. Martin Lovitz, Mrs. Mitchell Markow, Mrs. Richard Schroeder, and Mr. Bernard Yeskin.

B'nai B'rith Women Meet This Evening

The next regular meeting of the South Bay B'nai B'rith Women will be held this evening at 8:30 p.m. at the Gardena Community Center.

There will be a short business session after which a social evening is planned, and games, such as cards, Scrabble and Mah Jong, will be played.

At an Anti Defamation League Luncheon held recently, Mrs. Bernard Yeskin of 1624 Greenwood, Torrance, who

CHURCH SLATES PICNIC SUNDAY

The annual Sunday School Church picnic of the Torrance First Lutheran Church will be held this Sunday beginning at 1:30 p.m., on the church grounds, at Carson and Flower streets.

A pot luck dinner, provided by ladies of the congregation, will be served, and free soda and ice cream will be available, it was announced. There will be recreation for both children and adults and a large crowd is expected, church officials said.

Rev. Flentge On Vacation

In the absence of Rev. and Mrs. Donald E. Flentge, who are on vacation, the pulpit was filled on July 24 by Rev. Harold Tuttle.

Mr. Tuttle and his wife helped in the Calvary Community Church during Vacation Bible School last year. He is principal of the Calvary Baptist Church Christian School at Gardena.

Rev. Al Mace will bring both the morning and evening message on July 31.

Mr. Mace is known to the young people of this church as the "Bugler" at Camp Faith last year. He is preparing for service as a missionary under the China Inland Mission, according to church officials.

Pastor Visits Holy Land On Europe Trip

The pastor of the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church, Rev. Robert A. Wells, returned this week after a tour of the Holy Land. He also attended the Baptist World Alliance which met in London, England. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Loman D. Carter.

The Baptist World Alliance was attended by people of nearly every country in the world. Nearly 9,000 people from outside the London area were in attendance. This included 3,500 from the United States. The largest single group was the nearly 2,000 Southern Baptist who attended.

Rev. Wells will base his Sunday sermon on his trip. The public is invited to attend, churches officials said.

Church Plans Monthly Pot Luck Dinner

Dr. Earl D. Barnum, minister of the Religious Science Church in Redondo Beach, has announced that Sunday, July 31, is the date set for the monthly potluck dinner, and membership meeting in the Masonic Temple dining hall, at Ruby and Catalina Streets in Redondo Beach. 6:30 p.m. is the time. "All members and friends," says Dr. Barnum, "are urged to come and bring a covered dish and enjoy the social get-together and also hear the latest news with regard to the building program."

"Mrs. Bernice Chandler, social chairman, may be contacted at FRontier 4-1874 for further information."

Stage Show Featured By Walterians

A local talent show was held at the Hollywood Riviera recreation area last Wednesday. It revealed some up and coming young entertainers, among whom were: Jane Cobbe and Terry O'Halloran, who sang "Game;" Marg Palmer, who presented a violin solo; Claudia Wald, who sang "Little Dutch Mina" and Melody Mabin and Jeanie Dainauskus, who sang "Oh What a Beautiful Morning."

Dancers presented were: Vicki Hoffman, doing a tap routine, and Bonnie Dainauskus, with a hula.

Bob Vassar and Panette Rodden, recreation leaders of the area, supervised the show.
